March Week 2 Behavior Scenarios

Social Emotional Skills

Digitability is the only scalable, STEM-focused model that continues to be recognized as an innovative solution to the unemployment crisis facing a large – and growing – population of those with disabilities. Whereas less than 30% of people with disabilities are employed, 70% of Digitability graduates obtain full-time employment.

Something for EVERY Student: The needs of individuals who participate in Digitability run the gamut. All of your resources are extensively differentiated to support a wide range of cognitive, communication and behavioral needs.

Reduce Time Planning & Progress Monitoring: Digitability manages your existing special education priorities into a streamlined process. We have all the tools to enhance existing programming or serve as a foundation for innovative programming at any school or in any classroom.

Program Resources Include:

- ✓ 700+ Digital Literacy Lesson Plans
- ✓ 200+ Social, Communication & Behavior Resources
- ✓ 600+ Workplace Readiness Activities
- ✓ 100+ Functional Academic Resources
- ✓ 900+ Interactive Online Activities

Materials

- Printed Yes/No Labels
- Printed Thumbs Up/Thumbs Down cards for Tier 3 Differentiation
- Scenario Cards (print, cut, and shuffle)
- Optional- Printed Worksheets (for alternative activity)

Instructions:

- Post “Yes” sign on one wall of room and “No” sign on the opposite wall. Ensure students have ample space to move between the two walls.
- Tell students “We are going to hear different scenarios about two people working together. If the person is make a positive choice, you will move to the wall marked “Yes.” If the person is not making a positive choice, you will move to the wall labeled “No.”
- Inform students “You will earn participation dollar for every statement you answer. Once you have identified your answer, I’ll ask someone to share more about their answer. Adding to your answer can earn you more participation dollars.”

Differentiated Instruction:

- Tier 1: Students will determine if a scenario shows positive behavior. If the behavior shown is not a positive choice, students will state what the student in the scenario should have done instead.
- Tier 2: Students will determine if a scenario shows positive behavior. If the behavior is not a positive, students will state what specific behavior in the scenario should not have occurred.
- Tier 3: Students will use a thumbs up or thumbs down card to show if a behavior in the scenario is positive or not.
- ALTERNATIVE USE: Students can use the worksheets version of this activity instead of the scenario cards and yes/no labels.

Incorporate Bankability:

- Students will answer questions during the activity and earn Bankability dollars for following directions, participating, and remaining on-task.
- Teachers will enter dollar amounts to the students’ Bankability accounts.

Monica and Marcus have a project due in a month. They sit down together and create a timeline to finish the project.

Marcus is stuck on a project. He asks for ideas to help solve his problem. Monica offers some suggestions. Marcus takes her advice and finishes his project.

Marcus is preparing food orders during lunch rush. Half way through, Marcus gets a notification on his phone. He sits down to check his text messages.

Monica is telling coworkers about a new product for customers. It reminds Marcus of last night's basketball game. Marcus starts asking questions about the game during Monica's presentation.

Marcus gets hungry on his shift. He knows Monica has several snacks in her locker. He decides to take one without asking.

Marcus is proud to show off a picture he painted. Monica sees it and says "That looks like a child painted it."

Monica is running a few minutes late for her work shift. She calls her manager to let her know that she is on her way.

Monica sees a customer struggling to carry her groceries so she runs and gets the customer a shopping cart.
