Provide Students Feedback with The Sandwich Approach

Receiving, processing, and acting upon conclusions drawn from feedback is a critical, 21st century skill that students must master. One method of safely delivering critical feedback to students is to utilize the Sandwich Approach. The Sandwich Approach is a communication method that aims to wrap a piece of critical feedback within a positive observation and a motivating statement.

Positive
What did you love about their presentation? Is there a skill they have been working on that you could celebrate?

Critique
What could have been better? What questions do you have about their presentation or topic?

Motivation to Grow
Positively frame action items and next steps. Then, wrap it up with a compliment!

Example:

[student finishes presenting their Exit Ticket]

"Julian, I thought you did a great job presenting because of how clearly and slowly you spoke so that we could hear your details." (Positive)

I do have a question though: "insert question and have student answer." (Question)

"I see, ok. And the last thing I wanted to say is that I know how hard you have been working to speak more clearly when you are nervous, and I think you are going to continue improving, so keep up the great effort!." (Motivation to Grow)
